The Worldwide Equity strategy performance reflects the results of composite members that are discretionary accounts that seek to outperform our custom "Global Equity Index" over a market cycle. The strategy utilizes a bottom-up, fundamental analysis "relative value" approach to selecting common stocks. The objective is to buy "high quality" large capitalization companies (both domestically and internationally via ADRs) at a discount to their fair market value. Benchmark: Global Equity Index, which consists of 80% S&P 500 index and 20% EAFE index. The US dollar is the currency used to express performance.

The S&P 500 index is a market capitalization weighted index that consists of 500 domestic stocks chosen based on market size, liquidity and industry group representation. The MSCI (Morgan Stanley Capital International) EAFE Index (Europe, Australasia, Far East) is a free float-adjusted market capitalization index designed to measure the equity market performance of developed markets, excluding the US and Canada. Indices are unmanaged, assume reinvestment of income, do not represent the performance of an actual account and may have volatility, credit, or other material characteristics that differ from the investment strategy (i.e. number of securities). All indices referenced in this material are provided for informational purposes only and registered trade names or trademark/service marks of third parties. Investors cannot invest directly in an index. The returns of indices do not include any transaction costs, management fees or other costs.
